Introduction

April 10, 2020, Just after Midnight: In a dream, I see an image of lovely fields and hills in Paradise. Then I clearly hear an angel's voice excitedly speak directly into my ear, verbatim: "Can you believe that we are at the End of the Age? Can you believe that we are on the verge of the greatest outpouring of the Spirit of God this world has ever known?"

The End of the Church Age, a.k.a. the Age of Grace, is happening right now, and everyone now knows it. All media around the world are reporting that the world has changed on every level and there is no turning back; even when we "return to normal" it will look different. 2019 was our last year in the Church Age. A most significant paradigm shift has occurred, again confirming the audible voice of God to me in 2012, "The Church World is about to collapse."

In history, God would refer to a religious revival as "a great revival" or "a major move of God" or "one of the greatest revivals..." Here, He said "the greatest outpouring (revival) of the Spirit of God this world has ever known. This is what is immediately before us, though it may take a few years to fully manifest. Like everything in the media nowadays, all the reports in this book are noise; valid noise, important noise, powerful noise, but still noise between us and what God is saying. So, while reading this and consuming any media, please try to keep the most important point constantly in mind: We've changed lanes, we are in a New Day, and God's greatest outpouring of love, strength, blessings, edification, restoration, and all good things, is immediately before us, so don't despair. Hold on! We made it to the end of the world (the current world's system)! So let's sit back and enjoy the ride.

From the time I became a Christian in 1979, the Lord started showing me all kinds of dreams, visions, and trances. He also spoke to me articulately and visited me with angels. It took me a few years of studying how to understand and interpret this supernatural phenomena before I wrote my first book, "Understanding Supernatural Dreams According To The Bible, A Living Classic." The focus of my evangelistic and prophetic ministry was to help others gain understanding so they can also hang out with God here. I've had thousands of valid visions of many different kinds, as I teach in my second book, "Understanding Supernatural Visions According To The Bible." Many have been edified--church folk and secular folk--as I would interpret others' revelations and experiences and prophesy to them or have visions or dreams about them. If forced to pick which of my visions is the most powerful, with blazing lights and goose-bumps, audible voices, angels, and insights, it would be very hard to pick but I narrowed it down to this most important relevant one that speaks to the current time. I call it: "What Time It Is: We've Just Changed Lanes."

September 25, 2011, 7:00 am: He that has ears to hear, let him hear. From sometime after 6:00 am, in a series of dreams God showed me anointed individuals in history, and gradually, I sensed the actual, tangible presence of the Holy Spirit. In the last dream, He invited me to look outside around the housing area where I live and said He will show me His Glory up in the sky there, in 20 minutes. I clearly saw the face of Jesus and clearly heard His voice articulately, verbatim: "If you go outside and look up to the sky, I will show you My Glory in 20 minutes." So, in the vision, I went looking and His Glory did show up in this vision, exactly on time, exactly 20 minutes.

It looked like blue and red fire artistically formed, as if it had a mind. It intelligently made some movements and eventually split the sky, going from one end of the sky to the other in a shape like a tornado and a fireball of some sort. I was with a neighbor and we were amazed. Somehow it was made known to us that GOD JUST CHANGED TIME BY 3 1/2 MINUTES. HE HAS JUST MADE A SHIFT IN THE EARTH that changes all the rules. Whatever we have been doing has now been trumped by a new day and new commission: the current message is WIN THE LOST AT ANY COST.

Suddenly the fires were going about everywhere burning every building but not consuming them. It was as when the Apostle Paul (in 1Corinthians 3:12-13) said that fire shall test every man's work to see what kind it is, and if it's not gold, silver, or precious stones, it will be consumed and suffer loss. It was so real, I thought all the people in public could see it, but they could not; it was a spiritual event. But it was so scary, I tried insisting that they look and see the Glory fires so they could realize everything has changed and it is time to come to Jesus. I had to resort to pulling on them and grabbing them. "Pulling them out of the fire," (as the Apostle Jude said, in Jude 1:23), throwing them to the salvation altars without regard for repercussions. I cannot tell if I was successful in saving their souls.

I woke up thinking about shifts in time in the Bible: when the sun and moon stood still, (Joshua 10:13); when the sun dial was altered, (Isaiah 38:8); and other events when God changed the world in an instant: Jesus died and the sun refused to shine, (Luke 23:45); the Holy Ghost came to earth and initiated a new dispensation, (Acts 2:1-2). History has seen other world-changing events that occurred of a sudden.

This vision had an apocalyptic sense; I felt like we were living in "Book of Revelation" times. I felt privileged and honored that God was entrusting me to see the degree of His Glory that I was seeing, and that I was able to "get it" because of my disposition to and understanding of supernatural revelations. The thought occurred that I'd been enabled to see for 3 decades so that I could see this, to know what time it is.

I woke up and began trying to remember details and interpret the vision, but retained and understood only part. Within a few minutes, the clock read 7:09 am, so I think it's just about at 7:00 am that this vision was at its peak. The most significant part is that TIME HAS BEEN CHANGED BY 3 1/2 MINUTES. I didn't know what that meant, but it definitely involved a new season, re-prioritizing, and it seemed to refer to the first half of the Tribulation period that the Bible teaches about. We've just changed lanes.

During this most spectacular highest-level trance, I heard the Lord clearly articulate in my ear, "All the rules have changed." "We've just changed lanes." "Win the lost at any cost." There were some other words and visuals that I was not able to retain.

Winning the lost and bringing them to the salvation altars is not to be done by conventional models; He said that all the rules have changed. In other visions and revelations from 2007 to around 2012, He said, "Conventions have collapsed." "I've taken over the world." "We're in a season of the miraculous." "The end is here." "Welcome to the future." "The Church World is about to collapse." It has taken over a decade for these things to come into manifestation. Dozens of other pertinent powerful messages from the Lord for our time are found throughout my other books (always free for those who ask), and on YouTube.

One of the most puzzling parts of this vision was that the earth has been shifted by 3 1/2 minutes/ time has been changed by 3 1/2 minutes. After much contemplation for over 8 years, I now think that that is the 3 1/2 years of the Trump Administration because the shifting is like the world turning upside down and this is what has occurred from November 2016 to Spring 2020. As of this writing, my best interpretation is that the vision was alerting me to what was going to happen soon: there will be a shift in the earth (the geography as well as the people, the sociality, the politics, the spirituality, etc.), and it will occur inside 3 1/2 years ("minutes"). If this part is so, this means that the other parts are true as well: "We've just changed lanes." There's no going back to 2019, and that's a good thing because it means that the other messages are also kicking in: "God has taken over the world," and "We're in a season of the miraculous." So let's hold on and brace ourselves and tough it out--grit our teeth and bear these unfun days--until these things fully manifest because God is gonna throw a big party shortly.

But, let's don't try and party prematurely! First, it's humbling time. Repose, chill, relax from all your labors for a moment as much as you possibly can. Don't just look at reruns of old shows or movies, or text friends for hours while you are in quarantine. Take this earth-quieting season to meditate and elevate to a higher state of consciousness. It's beautiful. It's gonna come and get you anyway, this higher Thing we call God, so you might as well surrender. The current condition has become our spiritual-ness enabler. You are forced to shift now along with all the rest of us. So come on and jump in, the water's fine and the gang's all here. We're all in this together.

WARNINGS Not anonymous

Think of these 3 experiences, like in the movie "Eat Pray Love," with Julia Roberts. She did eat and party and have fun and enjoy life, then the Divine Providence invited her to now pray for a season, during which unplanned events shifted her focus in a positive way. Then--after chillin' in a season of prayer and meditation--a season of love, yes romantic love, came about. Movies can edify us spiritually. We can look on the past that we lived and laughed, then sit and chill, be still and get to know the Lord a little, confess our sins and ask forgiveness, ask God to fix what needs fixin'. Then the Love of God, which passes all understanding, will be shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit that is given to us. Then we can hope for a brighter future. Then He will throw us a real big party. Then He will restore to us the years of tears. It's not a poem, it's what the Bible prophesies so it's gonna happen. We will be restored our portion. Evildoers, too, will get their due portion.

You did grow up, you did accomplish stuff, education, career, children, travel... And you have partied. Our Heavenly Father says it's time to seek Him more than you have ever sought Him before. Then, within reason, exhale and prayerfully consider rethinking your future. Get comfortable saying goodbye to yesterday because it's gone. It's sad and unfair but there's no more of that Age. God said, "The Church Age is about to collapse," (in October 13, 2012), and "We are at the End of the Age," (on April 10, 2020).

Here's another encouraging word from the Lord given in 1995: Before a crowd of thousands of people in a large revival in Florida, a Pastor that is unacquainted with supernatural manifestations of the Holy Spirit stood in a trance unable to move for a few minutes. Onlookers were spellbound. Then he fell, spoke with other tongues, and prophetically interpreted. Addressing supernatural manifestations of holy laughter, shaking, falling, drunkenness in the Spirit, etc., that was occurring in that decade, and speaking to the unbelievers, the prophecy was, "For the Spirit of the Lord would say to you skeptic, It began this way, it shall end this way. For I, the Spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ, am moving on the face of the earth. It is not a new thing. It is the same thing that I did in the beginning. For you shall see even greater things than this. For I am doing a work. It shall shake the nation. It shall turn it upside down. It shall shake it--real good. And it shall turn it right side up again. And the glory of the end shall not be compared to the glory of the beginning. So sit back and watch. It's going to happen whether you believe it or not." The crowd of thousands instantly went from silence where you can hear a pin drop, to ecstatic jubilation.

The events of today are the birth pangs of a New Age as well as a new world order. God is in control and, ultimately, will show America His greatest glory. No cliché here but yes, the end is greater than the beginning. God is doing something that will turn us right side up again, so that the end shall be greater than the beginning; we won't compare America's latter glory to the former, as occurred in the Book of Haggai 2:9: "The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, says the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, says the Lord of hosts."

When the Lord turns our captivity, undoes the current terror (the Coronavirus, political problems, social and economic problems), we will be like those who dream, it will be like a dream come true. In the next few years, America will have a great party, enjoy its greatest season. It will be joy unspeakable and full of glory. You will look back on today and praise the Lord for the great things He has done. It will be like a fairy tale that you would not believe if it were told you. For decades, many have prophesied of a great awakening, revival, outpouring of God's Spirit on the earth for our time, a move of God unequalled and that words cannot describe even by the most articulate orators. The words of the Bible prophets are true again: "When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The Lord hath done great things for them. The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad," (Psalm 126:1-3).

I'm not really politically-informed. I watch news sporadically. I stress this so my reader will not think my revelations are invented or biased. I am a Prophet and God shows me stuff; I don't read newspapers or blogs to get ideas about end-time events as many do, and I don't read up on and re-spin what other prophets are saying; they are seriously diminished in my eyes for a number of reasons over the last 20 years; (I think about 1% of prophets and prophecies are truly legit, and I can name several that are very jealous of my gift and wish they had it and have tried to get it illegitimately).

I have participated in countless prayer meetings and seminars where prayer warriors have taught and anointed me: Misael and Tati Roman, Edith Heflin, Ruth Heflin, Rachel Teafatiller, Phil Halverson, Loretta Taylor, Joel Laurore, Irene Fink, Gloria Jeffries, Kenneth E. Hagin. All my grandparents were pioneering Pentecostal ministers that prayed for me and my family a lot. I read and studied many lectures (in books, cassettes, real conferences) on prayer phenomena and dynamics, and quit my job in the Postal Service to pray every day for hours on end for years. My prayer and visions gift came from Above because of my sincerity and purity of heart (and real world sacrifices), and its veracity remains unquestioned. I also preached every day through the streets and trains of New York City alone, for hours, throughout the 1980's. All of this being penniless and without reward. My family and neighbors are witnesses.

All through my preaching, teaching, writing and prophesying for decades, no one has ever accused me of sin, weird doctrine, or incorrect prophecies. In fact, I was considered pioneering in my writing and refreshing for my contribution. I was given the key to a couple of churches so that I can sleep near the altar for a few days and possibly get prophetic insights from God for the church, so well-regarded I was for my genuine supernatural experiences and spiritual revelations from Heaven. Pastors were not disappointed because God always revealed valid, needed confirmations. I was trusted, and no one ever pointed an accusatory finger at me. Many, including progressive Pastors, thought highly of me. A few families, Black, White, Latino (Mark and Patty Smith, Wallace and Gloria Jeffries, Bob and Karon McGovern, Ivan and Delmi Sanchez), gave me space in their homes for days to fast and pray and get visions from God. Un-anointed ideologues, however, are not interested in my revelations, especially since the era of Obama (actually earlier). I am happy to be distanced from them and, consequently, I no longer have affiliations with church stuff and have no allegiance to any entity but God.

I am very informed on divine communications; I have a genuine understanding of spiritual experiences and am fairly competent at interpreting others' dreams and visions as well as my own. I have spent countless hours on the phone with many individuals for many years mentoring them on spiritual themes and praying for or prophesying to them. Of course, never for money.

Also, I am a broken individual. I've been hurt a lot and robbed a lot. But I keep a positive disposition because God keeps me uplifted, and it is with joy that I lift others. With these things in mind, and with this New Age thing in mind, let's look at some of the last events of the last Age as seen through my spiritual eyes. I gave you, the reader, a peek into my spiritual life and natural life so you can approach this writing with a sober attitude and with an appreciation for what God has done with me so that I can be a blessing to you. Please understand that I have no agenda or motive and wish no harm. I just hope to fill in some blanks where appropriate for the adults in the room. This, with prayer, is my service.

2020 Visions and Revelations of the Lord

The following insights from the Lord are listed mostly in chronological order, so be sure to note the dates. Words in quotes are verbatim from the Lord or another divine voice, and my interpretations and comments follow.

Dreams from God about Obama's elections:

February 2008 to November 2008: I'd had about 20 visions about God's will for Barack Obama to be our President. These visions had me in a state of prayer like a woman with child, as Jeremiah, the weeping Prophet, describes in Jeremiah 9:17-18. It was as if it was kinda up to me, as well as up to other people of prayer, to support the plan of God in the land. I could not laugh at jokes and insults about him because major matters concerned me, much as a mother cares over her young. The nation and the Obama Administration was my concern in prayer, even though I was not involved or informed in political stuff. I was involved in spiritual stuff, having been grandly educated and anointed in old school kind of prayer dynamics, with burdens and groanings in tongues and spiritual travail. Those that understand these things cannot possibly harbor hatred and produce venom. That's why I distanced myself from many so-called Christians; too many were content to demonize God's man for the hour. It is incomprehensible how they have forgotten that the Bible says, "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter," (Isaiah 5:20).

2008 to 2012: I had a few dozen more dreams and visions, always affirming the Glory of God on Obama and on America, and showing that we were under an Open Heaven. It was during President Obama's first term in office that the Lord spoke articulately in sleeping visions: "The world is doing great, GREATER THAN EVER BEFORE," (2008); "This is Calvary's finest hour," (2010); "We're in a season of the miraculous," (2011); and "I've (Jesus) taken over the world," (2011).

July 29, 2009: In a trance, I saw an angel of God walking across America and when he got to the Heartland, he stopped and looked at me, and declared boldly and happily: "America's greatest revival ever is starting right now... but you're going to have to embrace the current season." I was astounded and elated and thought, "But I already embrace the current season of the Obama Administration; there must be something more to this." Over the next few days, the news media showed town hall meetings across the nation in a great divide between those for and those against the Health Insurance Reform Initiative, Obamacare. I realized it was to be an amazing accomplishment with Heaven's blessing. The angel said it is part of "America's greatest revival ever." Over the years, I've asked a few health professionals about it and they confirmed it is a good thing. That Trump has insisted on destroying it shows he is anti-revival, anti-blessing, anti-anointing.

I marvel at why God chooses to reveal these kinds of things to someone that is not informed on these matters. I'm not a student of American history or political science, and I only worked temporary gigs as a political canvasser to make a few bucks. Even though I learned some things in the process, it's the Heavenly insight that really informs me. If only those that are in power could get such epiphanies, we would all be in a better place. It is an entirely spiritual matter, so those that cannot agree simply cannot see and understand. I am compelled by the Holy Spirit to discount arguments against the Obama Administration whether from Whites, Blacks, or others, no matter their purported intelligence, understanding, experience, because the Mind of the Lord is higher. "My ways are higher than your ways," says the Lord, (Isaiah 55:8-9).

November 5, 2012 (the day before the presidential election): I dreamed President Barack Obama would be re-elected by a landslide, and he was. The idea that "the glass ceiling has been shattered" was confirmed in several dreams until 2016. In the spiritual realm, so much benefit greater than that in the reparations conversation was revealed during these years. I saw dream-visions of Restoration Lines, (like welfare lines of the '60's), where Blacks were being informed that new blessings were being made available. Huge supermarkets and malls were opened and anyone and everyone, of every culture, could enter and take whatever they wanted, and it was all peaceful and legal. It was God saying that we are in a season of abundance and prosperity. In hindsight, it was true, even though not everyone got to enjoy it.

I also saw in a dream young people of color being motivated to pursue their dreams; they would not be deferred, as in previous decades. Yes, God was immensely glorified in those 8 years. The Heavens were open, then they closed. I'm not a biased person and don't even ask God for the revelations. I just pray and obey and agree with what He says. "Not my will but Your will be done," (Luke 22:42).

Sometime between 2010 to 2012: In a most significant trance-vision, I saw something that may apply to today, 2020. Many are concerned about the unprecedented civil unrest. Will this lead to a civil war in America? No. I saw America with Republicans on one side and Democrats on the other, as if there was a threat of a civil war. Many of them were bearing arms and crouching and hiding behind bushes, like we see in the movies. Finally, President Obama comes to the middle of a ground between the both camps holding a paper with blood on it, showing it to the Republicans, revealing that their capitalist activities caused the death (bloodshed) of many innocents, and it was time for a change. The Republicans bowed their heads and looked ashamed. They, finally, showed remorse; they showed they have a conscience. Then, there was no civil war.

I cannot think of an instance more obvious than today that this vision speaks to: Trump and Republicans are bloodguilty for permitting the suffering and death that they have, all for money, (to keep their jobs, affiliations, etc.). These things are obvious to the informed, and they've been reporting it in the news and books for 3 1/2 years. It took me awhile to put 2 + 2 together because I haven't read any of their books. Thankfully I'm able to go back and check out some of the revelations from the Lord that I have journaled. When I get a really good one, I make sure I note the time and date, and get up and type it.

May 28, 2014: I dreamed Hillary Clinton will win the 2016 Presidential Election. Obama had just left the White House, and Hillary was inside sitting and waiting and preparing. Just one simple dream; I thought I'd probably get more, and I did. I saw her being groomed for the presidency, and being persecuted by Donald Trump.

Sometime in 2014: I dreamed it will soon become very easy for immigrants to come to America legally. Things will change significantly. In the dream, it seemed it could easily become an overnight process. The legal document process was expedited and made nearly instant. This is more likely to occur during a Clinton Administration, again indicating that Hillary will win.

January 19, 2015: Roughly from 12:00 midnight to 12:40-ish am, coincidentally on the morning of Martin Luther King's birthday: I was in a powerful trance with glorious rays of light shooting forth from me (face and body). I'm petting a cat (feline/female), she sits on my right shoulder and her body leans on my right ear, and her body resonates and articulates verbatim: "I saw the Lord; He was high and lifted up and His Glory filled the temple." (Isaiah 6:1) Then the rays shining forth through me began to produce many different musical tones, like various pipes of a church organ. It was very divine, holy, and prophetic in its essence. I tossed to and fro on the bed a few times, in and out of sleep, over the next 40-ish minutes, and saw these visions/ supernatural dreams while under a heavy anointing of the Holy Spirit (I physically felt the powerful presence of God).

Then I saw these visions and heard these words: "Support... supremely... and get the votes..." (with a distinct sense of Hillary Clinton's presence nearby). I saw America at night lit up with bright lights (houses, buildings) all across, giving the idea that things were getting better and better opportunity-wise for people of color (which automatically means for the whole nation). Then I saw Conservative Republican Whites with cowboy hats, walking (maybe leaving?) eastward toward the East Coast and maybe further, saying, "I hate this country." I saw Hillary influencing policy that would enable material resources, including money, to flow more to regular folks and not just to the rich elite. This is the posture of Democrats, so it suggested Hillary being elected President.

November 2015: I dreamed that race relations will improve in America very shortly, partly because more and more are discovering they are mixed anyway. In the same dream, I saw land-moving equipment plowing across America, especially across the Heartland, westward, and new communities and cities being built. I saw the words "New Land." This informs me that there will shortly be great spikes in the economy and real estate and business. In this extraordinary vision, I was with an extremely sharp prophetess (maybe the late Prophetess Loretta Taylor) and we both viewed America from above the Earth, and she was noting details about the nation through a sort of lens. But I told her, "No, don't look through your lens, look through my seeing glass; she did and was able to see even more detail and became impressed, saying, "How can you see like that?"

(I hate that I've got to speak well of myself, but I do, otherwise many will go along following what others, that are not so accurate or sincere, are saying. I don't want to be guilty of false humility, and want to point to truth, like a real prophet should, never minding what people might think of me. While affiliated with Prophetess Taylor during the 1980's, I prophesied to her, based on dreams and visions, over a dozen times. She prophesied to me thrice).

So, I have had about a dozen dreams/visions that affirm a Hillary Clinton presidency. I have every reason to believe they were divinely inspired from God, and will never recant that. She was robbed. History will look very kindly on her, and she is even now one of the most honored women in the world, based on what the Lord has revealed.

Now, 5 years later, I understand those with cowboy hats were the political ideologues that have done everything within their power to prop up Trump, never minding the unspeakable cost. The current crises are the result of trumping God's will--God's choice of a Hillary Clinton presidency--with a demon-possessed man. And yes, there is an unspeakable price to pay.

The "new land," the "ease of immigration," the "improved race relations," and the other "glorious aspects" of what was to be a Hillary Clinton Administration, was taken from us. As of this writing, the world is upside down. But it doesn't end there because a number of things tell us that God will fix everything and make it better than it was before. So sit back and watch. It's gonna happen.

WARNINGS Not anonymous

June 18, 2016, 11:15 pm: I dreamed Trump would lose the presidential election because he is toxic, and it seemed he didn't want to win. He had been injected with a green substance in a needle, by several different sources (he had been poisoned by various absurd ideas by various groups). I also saw that very soon, like the months following, poll numbers will confirm his unpopularity; voter, delegate counts will overwhelmingly assure his loss. The fact that he won, assures me it was an illegitimate win, suggesting misinformation, hacking, threats, bribes, bullying and more were in play.

At face value, it can appear that my prophetic insight was flawed because he did win, but it's not so black and white. Visions show us pieces of puzzles, and what I received was the heart of the Lord, His mind and will for the hour. If I were wrong, I would get that and admit it. But I understand too much of the spiritual dynamics to simply say I missed it this time. It would be irresponsible to concede and dismiss the glorious revelations. I don't have a history of "missing it," so I had to do what I always do, pray and wait until God clarifies the matter. In the case of the November 2016 presidential election, He did clarify, both by more dreams and visions, and by the congressional investigations into the Trump campaign.

I dreamed about Trump being toxic about 5 times. I don't even want to mention any more than that. Thinking about him once around June or July 2016, I heard the words: "Pure entertainment." A couple of days later, many on TV were calling the campaign entertainment, and comedians were acknowledging how much material Trump and his campaign were providing.

June 27, 2016, 9:20-22 am: I had an extraordinary vision in which I was talking with Hillary Clinton about her winning the election that November. I hugged her and whispered in her ear that as I support President Obama, I support her. I also saw that she would have 2 terms in office, and assured her that I will be praying for her with high priority. Again, I saw the will of God.

November 2016: Either immediately before or immediately after the election, I dreamed Trump was offering me anything I want if I would support him. We were in the White House, and it seemed he was bribing me, but he was totally uncharismatic, and I wasn't sure what to do because of his power; I was intimidated but finally declined. There was an old Black woman, alive, entrenched/ embedded in one of the walls, indicating to me that she (representing Black Americans) cannot be moved from her inheritance, ownership, what belongs to her, here in America.

November 9, 2016 (The day after the presidential election): I heard Jesus' voice clearly say, "It's gonna be worse than you have even thought." The same week, I saw a vision of some guy telling another guy, "Get the fuck out of the country while you still can!" Days later, the news began reporting record exoduses.

The same week, I dreamed that Trump was demanding everyone to line up and get in order, we're going inside; no more fun! Liberties, blessings, and fun stuff will soon come to a screeching halt. It's like the singer Pitbull singing, "Don't Stop The Party," and Trump saying, "Oh yeah? Watch this!" and ordering everyone to line up. It was as if we were schoolchildren in the schoolyard during recess having fun, and a mean schoolmaster demanding us all to get in line--stop laughing and playing--because we're going back inside. That was what I saw in the dream. So I immediately knew that Trump would close the heavenly blessings of peace and prosperity and happiness that we had been enjoying. Yes, the many gains we have made as a society--socially, politically, economically, religiously, and entertainment-wise--were going to stop. Now in 2020, we are seeing these things stopped; a scripted attempt to lose the gains is happening now.

January 2017: I started dreaming about the big Blue Wave coming, about 5 times, beginning just after the Inauguration and up until the mid-term elections of November 6, 2018, when Democrats won many seats in Congress.

March 2017: I dreamed Hillary Clinton was very highly honored on a platform. The Republican Party was sitting in the audience and disappearing 2 or 3 at a time until there were none. Soon afterward, many on TV talk shows started saying that the Republican Party has destroyed itself.

Spring 2017: While washing dishes in my kitchen, a voice articulated: "The College voted for him." I thought, "What college? Brooklyn College? voted for whom? Me? Voted for what? Graduation?" It was puzzling at first because I don't think in terms of political stuff, and I'm quite naive. Finally, I understood what others know: the Electoral College voted for him--they are to blame.

2018-2019: Investigation/ Impeachment/ Removal of Trump from the presidency was consistently legitimated by God in several dreams.

June 2018: Jesus' voice articulated: "You have a year." I had no idea what that meant, and struggled with that for over a year. Something significant is going to happen in approximately a year, give or take a few months. Is it about me, or the nation, or the world? Is it something good, or bad? What can I do to prepare for whatever this thing is? All I could do was keep on doing what I always do--stay home and study, and work when I can. I couldn't interpret that one until a year later, when I visited my biological father in Florida for Thanksgiving. I hadn't seen him for over 30 years, and the Lord fulfilled some prophecy in the visit. It was also the first time I traveled in over 20 years, so busy I was for decades with writing books, going to college, making a movie, and taking care of my Mom before she went to Heaven.

Back in Brooklyn, I felt different, as if the family visit just before Christmastime was a life-changing event. God was right. However, a year and a half after His alert, when all this hell breaks loose on earth, I realized what He really meant: "You have a year... before the end of the world as we know it... before we change lanes... before all the rules will change... before conventional structures collapse," (according to other relevant prophecies, which are related in this book). Did it turn out to be a good thing, or bad? Bad, because of the death and destruction and uncomfortable paradigm shifting occurring, but ultimately and gloriously good because of what the angel excitedly told me in the first vision I related above, on page 3: "We are on the verge of the greatest outpouring of the Spirit of God this world has ever known!"

What the prophets and preachers have declared for millennia, and the nations have waited for, is this unprecedented visitation of God, and we are the generation so blessed to see it, though it seems to tarry. But the Desire of Nations will come and not tarry. So we can lift our heads and rejoice. Yes, He alerted me in June 2018 that we have a year (or so), and now in 2020 everyone knows that we've crossed a major threshold; we have indeed changed lanes.

I didn't just start thinking about the end of the Age in 2018. In 2010: An angelic voice articulated in my ear as I woke up: "Go ahead and enjoy the last moments of humans on earth as we know it." So he gave me a heads-up over a decade ago. Now is the time to enter the New Age, wherein is new manna (blessings). Let go of the old because it stinks now, enjoy the fresh manna for today. Yes, it is a good thing, albeit with unfun birth pangs. He will shake all nations, but then He will fill us with His Glory. (Haggai 2:7).

October 2, 2018: In a trance, I saw foreign children coming to America and owning homes and more here, and establishing new lives. Then I heard the Lord say clearly, "The children are coming." I'm still not sure who the children are but I think they are the descendants of the previous generations of those that tried to come to America but couldn't, including the children separated at the border in recent years. I don't want to guess, but that's my best understanding so far, and I think I have the Mind of the Lord on the matter.

October to December 2018: I dreamed that justice was closing in on Trump, and that the ramifications of his policies/ initiatives/ agendas will be very bad: freedoms lost, etc. Honest as always, I must admit I saw nothing of economic failure or of civil unrest or of a pandemic coming.

December 13, 2018, 6:30 - 7:00 am: I dreamed all the corrupt individuals in Trump's orbit will be brought to justice. One by one, they are all going down. Eventually, he will be brought before the law to speak in his own defense and explain his activities. Many lawpersons--prosecutors, investigators, Senators, judges--sat before him requiring answers, while the larger public (the whole world) sat all around listening. He had absolutely no defense, became like a 5-year-old child, made a 180-degree about face, and ran for the hills of people that support him. He climbed onto a railing and leaped onto his people like those that crowd-surf, but he fell on the hard aisle-floor instead. Many, including the lawpersons, ran to see how he is, certain that he had hurt himself badly. I didn't see his condition but was sure he didn't die. Then I woke up.

Some have asked me what's gonna happen. I would tell my dreams and their meanings but, since I never invent or embellish, I didn't say what specifically will happen to Trump because I didn't get those specifics from the Lord--until this dream. From this dream on, I can say with confidence that the Lord has revealed that the lawbreaking persons in his orbit will all be brought to justice, just as we saw unfold in the media since 2018. Trump will also be brought to justice. He and his administration will be severely hurt. The power of the vision made me think it might happen sometime in 2019. It still seems to me like he may not even finish his first term in office, but I cannot say that with perfect confidence (maybe 90%, and I hope that's not just wishful guessing).

Summer 2019: In a trance, I saw Trump's evil reach the brim so everyone including those in his circle, Republicans, and also the Holy Spirit, agreed he had to be removed from office. The sense was that the Holy Spirit had been so very patient but could take it no more. He was escorted out of the room, even by his own, but before leaving he turned and looked at the Holy Spirit that was sitting and writing the judgment for his removal with a pen on paper, just as a human person would, and Trump reached out and hit, attacked the Holy Spirit's hand and caused it to bleed. Meaning: everyone, including those in his own party, know he is bad and must be removed from office. So he determined an evil attack before exiting. He caused blood to spill on the Holy Spirit's hand, a right hand that was judging him.

October 7, 2019: A voice articulated verbatim: "The White House is destroyed. He will fall hard and be replaced by a non-toxic person very soon." I believe this means Trump will be removed from office and replaced by a good person. Removed by election? Or how? I'm not sure but it seemed he wouldn't make it to the November 2020 election.

Early November 2019: Powerful vision: The Lord, in a very sober and somber presence, saw Trump's misdeeds and they were very much and He (God) determined for justice to prevail. The Lord spoke at length, and mentioned His anger at the many crimes Trump had committed and they appeared as many post-it notes on a body, covering it entirely up to the neck. The Holy Spirit spoke many words articulately (though I don't remember most of them), legitimating the democratic investigatory process (i.e., impeachment) and concluded that Joe Biden will win in November 2020. God showed me Joe Biden's face as he smiled humbly while learning he was God's choice.

The day after this vision, on the TV show Shark Tank, there was a guy with a business idea wearing a jacket full of post-its and it looked identical to the image in the vision. I don't like to follow "signs" on this base temporal plane too much because they tend to be fickle, deceptive and untrustworthy, but in this instance it was a perfect fit. It was a sign and confirmation from God that this vision was from Him. I didn't need this sign, though, being sure it was of God without any sign.

Mid-November 2019: I dreamed of New York City being locked down, quarantined real soon, and that I should get out of the city right away. Other than the 3-day visit to Florida, I had no way to leave New York. I have nothing but a humble apartment in the Williamsburg Projects, Brooklyn, for 45 years. I lived with Mom all my life and she went to Heaven in December 2017. I have no family of my own, no one that could take me in, and essentially nothing in the bank. So I told the Lord to just watch over me right here because there's nothing I can do and nowhere I can go. "Let's just wait this out and hope it's only a simple, symbolic sort of quarantine thing. Okay, Lord?" ("Lockdown" and "quarantine" were not in my vocabulary at the time of this vision.)

Since NYCHA had been planning a significant structural renovation to begin in June 2020, with stricter rules for residents, I thought that might be a sort of quarantine condition. Now I understand it was a much bigger, more literal message. He warned me and permitted me to get out if possible, but it wasn't.

November 2019: I saw a vision of a spirit of death flying over New York City. The Bible says, "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked bear rule, the people mourn," (Proverbs 29:2). I thought it was a simple generalization that negativity reigns in this current administration, and there are and will be casualties (symbolic, not necessarily literal ones). As of March 2020, I understand it to mean literal death. The Holy Spirit consistently affirmed the Obama Administration with positive visions, and I was proud to prayerfully support it for 8 years. This one is abominable; since Spring 2016, I've had over 60 visions about Trump and the current administration, and they are all bad.

January 2020: The words "New World Order" popped up in a vision. I didn't know how it will look, but it seemed it was virtually upon us. From April onwards, everyone across the globe has been saying that we are now in a New Era, New Age, New World Order. Christians call it "The Third Day," and the "New Millennium." (We have only begun to transition into it.)

Last week of February 2020: I dreamed 2 Atomic Bombs blew up in NYC, one much larger than the other. They may be the virus in two phases, or they may be Trump and the other man in the vision of mid-March 2020, below. It may be Putin.

Early March 2020: I was working a couple of months as a temporary political canvasser for the Costa Constantinides campaign in Queens, and there were 3 more weeks for the gig but I dreamed of a dog with an infection of some kind at the door, and I thought I should stop the work then. All the talk about this virus thing on the news and in public did make me worry some. So I didn't go back to work. 2 weeks later, there was no work because of the lockdown.

Mid-March 2020: I dreamed Trump and another man both did a covert deed causing the virus. They went around sneakily in a hidden corner, then in another, as they activated this thing, with the ultimate intent to clear all the streets. It was like an atomic bomb, it was intentional and, in the context of my previous revelations, pre-planned, all in order get people to line up and get in order, to control the population. People were running wild everywhere, panicking in the streets as in the movie, "War Of The Worlds." In an instant, people were removed and all the streets were mostly empty, except for armed military persons.

WARNINGS Not anonymous

Now the world is on lockdown, and the new conversation is that everything has changed, there is indeed a new order of the day. The world has been turned upside down and will look different when it is turned right side up again. In large measure, our streets have been cleared out, and many police and military personnel have taken to the streets, albeit not as much as my dream showed.

March 2020: I know that there are blood rituals, which the Holy Bible absolutely condemns. Sometimes I can't help to think that's a part of the powerful loyalty some people might have. While channel surfing the last week of March 2020, I came across "The Valachi Papers" movie, which I'd never seen (it's too dark for me). I only watched for a few minutes to get a glimpse of this scene: Actor Charles Bronson is brought into the mafia as family by the blood-brother ritual I heard about when I was a little boy. Cut the index fingers and mix the blood with another "family" member, and you are engrafted into the family. Plus, there's an oath, which, if you break it, you die. I wanted to change the channel but thought I should watch this scene and possibly learn something. I was convinced that this was important to our conversation.

Also, I had previously been thinking about how beautiful it is to see our Democratic leaders with holy anger, righteous indignation as they orate. And I thought about how they have fire in the belly, and Trump has fire (rage) in his head. Then the thought came, "And in his hands, too!" In his hands? I'd never thought about fire in the hands of anyone, but then I thought okay, that makes sense. He has rage-fire in his head, and he has rage-fire in his hands (deeds, policies), too.

Then, when I saw the ritual in the movie a couple days later, after the mixing of blood from the index fingers, fire was placed in the hands of the new member, Charles Bronson, while the oath was spoken. In my opinion, God permitted me to catch this scene to confirm the earlier thought that Trump has a rage-fire in his hands, and is guilty of a deed resulting in blood on his hands. I began hearing people on the news saying Trump has blood on his hands, and had to agree. In my vision of Summer 2019, above, he struck at the Holy Spirit's

"hand" (which may represent people) and caused (not simply permitted) it to bleed, so he is guilty of bloodshed.

April 8, 2020; 3-5:00 am: I heard in the spiritual realm: "Been (or, being) removed." I thought it could be the Corona virus, or Trump. But the virus is getting worse and is not yet being removed.

Around April 10, 2020: After seeing Tracy Cooke on Sid Roth's religious TV show It's Supernatural, I questioned his prophecies in support of Trump, and that night I dreamed he and his followers were in error, and that my prophecies were valid. A woman that agrees with Cooke, and others with her, asked me boldly, "So all these Prophets and prophecies and revelations and large number of followers are wrong, and you alone, David, are right? And I humbly and soberly and correctly, with the True Spirit of God, said, "Yes." I woke up with clear understanding and felt great confidence that it was the Lord showing me that they are all wrong and I am right.

About a year ago (sometime in 2019), I had a very similar experience. I saw this guy Lance Wallnau on YouTube "prophetically" affirming Trump. That bothered me even though I already knew he was in error. But I bounced that off the Lord anyway. I always bounce everything off the Lord. I don't ask Him to give me visions and dreams because I know He can do that whenever He wants to (the Heavens are open over me in that regard), but I throw everything into His hands for keeping and for review. That very night I had a vision in a trance with Lance: some Christians came to my room for insight and when I shared, they said "But this man of God, Lance, and many others, are postured otherwise, in support of Trump. So they, with all their prophetic revelations and insights are all wrong, and you alone, David, are right? And I said, "Yes, my revelations from God are correct." I woke up with clear understanding and felt great confidence that it was the Lord showing me, again, that those particular individuals are wrong and that I am right. It was true in Bible times, and it is true today: many are the false prophets and false prophecies in the world, and rare (precious) are the genuine. (I have found a couple of prophecies on YouTube that seem to have some merit, though.)

WARNINGS Not anonymous

In the Bible, there are several instances of false prophets challenging true prophets. History is repeated. Copeland, Robertson, and many others, have lost their anointing and have sold out for the power of affiliation; have prostituted their morals and ministries for being in the "right" clique. The late Prophet Kenneth E. Hagin (who actually mentored or otherwise influenced many modern-day ministers), had declared that the Lord commanded: "Touch not the gold or the glory." But they have done so; they have sold their souls to evil ideas for prosperity and for praise.

There is something called "The blessing of unanswered prayer." They closed doors to me that should have been opened, sold my books without thanking or paying or acknowledging me, plagiarized me, and otherwise sent me to hell, and it has killed me (a true saint) several times over in the last 30 years. That God didn't answer my prayer to be affiliated with them has made me joyful beyond measure and beyond description, as I see and understand now in hindsight. So, yes, I still consider myself the most blessed and happy man on the planet being not affiliated with those religious communities but with the heavenly, angelic, eternally true holy beings, human and divine. Yet my arms of forgiveness and friendship are outstretched still. Yet there ain't nobody calling me.

If my journey and history as a true Christian, legitimate prophet, well-educated Bible scholar and author, and all-around good person, is not enough to establish my messages as credible and true, what more does one need to determine who is for real? This is why I can't discuss stuff with people. God is holy; His revelations and messages to me are holy, and I'm weary of arguing with people who don't respect these holy things but want to debate and make light of it and think it's okay to dismiss the holy things.

April 23, 2020: I dreamed that a Conservative Republican was in New Jersey sadly reporting that: "Spreading division and creating a race war is a main agenda of Trump and conservative elites." A month later, George Floyd is murdered and protests against racism reach new records, globally. I begin to hear on the news more bluntly than ever that "Trump is trying to start a race war." It was alleged and evident earlier, but more clear and obvious since the protests began.

April 25, 2020: The voice of the Lord said, "Over the next 2 years, many will die; they will be with Me in Heaven, which is a much better place." It seemed He was referring to the virus spreading and causing so many more people to die. Although there is a "judgment" aspect to this, there is also a "revival" aspect to it because many will be humbled and welcomed to repent of sin, get right with God, and dedicate their lives to Him. There will be a revival of faith in individuals and in masses, and "going to Heaven" will be a popular topic.

April 2020: I saw these words in 2 dreams, one right after the other: "Severe Consequences," and "The Deadliest Sin." Other words I heard in the spiritual realm this Spring: "Cruel," "Snake," "Brace yourself," "You're about to witness..." A lot of times God speaks only a word or part of a sentence. I, then, have to try and discern whether it is from Him, and if it is, how can I fill in the rest to make sense of it. His communication requires faith and response, so He doesn't just give us the whole thing with complete understanding. In many cases, though, He speaks clearly and articulately in my ear, and I get it and record and tell it verbatim, as I have published here.

Whether it is a message for the nation, or for an individual, if I don't understand it completely, I say so. Some of these things take time to come into clarity and into fulfillment. But when I get it, I say so, as here.

April 2020: I dreamed Gloria Copeland wished we could go back to the way things were, as if to say she regretted her posture that affirms the current crisis. She may have represented the anointing (glory) on her husband Kenneth, who is the main actor in their worldwide religious ministry. They may not admit it but they hate Donald Trump; they cannot admit it because of pride, and because they, their people, their money, and their sermons, are too invested in him, and they would be really embarrassed.

May 2020: I dreamed Billye Brim also regretted supporting Trump, and was leaning toward voting for Biden in November. She may not admit it either because of the great embarrassment and shame that would be the result, but inwardly she is regretful of her political posture, being a conservative Christian minister. Let's see how that plays out in real life. She has been an ideologue for decades; I went to several of her meetings decades ago, and learned much and was blessed much by the meetings, as I was by my affiliation with the Copeland's ministry. But they changed, or their true colors have come out, just like the rest of the Republican Party.

May 2020, 3rd week: The Lord said, "He muzzled Everybody." At first I thought He said that Trump "muscle" everybody, which also makes sense. But a couple of days later, someone on the news said that Trump had "muzzled" everybody, meaning that he forced people and entities to keep their mouths shut and simply agree with him on everything and anything, which we know is what has been occurring. Then on May 27, it dawned on me that he has also muzzled everybody by causing the crisis that requires the face masks. We need to use face masks as a result of something that Trump has caused/created. This confirms to me the other visions/dreams that suggest the pandemic was intended, scripted, planned and caused by design. He "is the cause of the muzzling of everybody."

Spring 2019: I dreamed Kamala Harris would become our U.S. President. I didn't know anything about her because I really don't follow politics, but everything about her was excellent. I went right back to sleep, and the Lord repeated it. I started to question the meaning--does this mean she will win in November 2020?; will she win later than that?; will she win in some other, symbolic sense? I started to believe it and to see her in a new light. A couple of days later, I started asking Him, "Why her?" He instantly answered, "Because I like her the most." I began telling people I dreamed that she will win the Presidential Election of 2020. After she dropped out of the race, I asked the Lord about that; I felt compelled to stick to my faith in what He had revealed. Then...

May 2020: I dreamed Kamala Harris was being prepared to be Joe Biden's choice for Vice President. If she becomes so, I will be satisfied that that satisfies the previous vision, the office being so close to that of President. If not, I'll still say it was God's will and would have been excellent. A different person as Vice President can also prove excellent.

In the 1990's, God showed me who was to be my wife in many visions and dreams, and after much prayer and effort, it never happened. In 1995, God told me He would permit me to be re-instated into the U.S. Postal Service, but after applying and trying a few times, it never happened. In 2000, He spoke supernaturally, clearly, instructing me to go to Columbia University, and after much effort, it never happened. An elderly prophetic friend, Philip, under the power of God confirmed that, yet it never happened. In 1987, in an astounding trance-vision, God instructed and anointed me to help Apostle Ramon Moran in his major church-building work in Maracaibo, Venezuela, and it never happened simply because I couldn't raise the money it required. The Lord told James Goll to support my ministry, so he promised to do so, but a few years later he plagiarized me and kicked me to the curb, thus killing my ministry; (that's the way the Lord put it a few times).

So God speaks His will clearly, but it doesn't mean it's gonna happen. People can mess up and get in the way. One of the stupidest things people have argued recently, in defense of Trump, is that the Bible says: "God is the one that sets up kings," as if to say God set up whoever is in office. But that's not true. King Saul was made king by men, and boy he messed up! He even tried to kill David, God's beloved choice for king. Saul assumed the image of spirituality only when he was among the religious, but was displeasing to the Lord and eventually killed himself.

June 28, 2020, 2:37 am: I heard a conversation as I woke up, in which someone was pointing out hotspots across America and said: "...he decided to open up America, and it has destroyed the whole country."

July 5, 2020: 10:18 am: While waking up from sleep, I saw in a vision these words in capital letters: "UNITED STATES." I thought, "Gee, what is God trying to say by this?" A minute later, 10:19 am, I heard a voice say: "Just died." Wow! That hurt me for a few hours. As disturbing as it was to think on this, I took courage in less than 24 hours when I thought on how we as Christians must die to self so Jesus can be glorified through our lives. John the Baptist acknowledged that he had to decrease and Jesus increase. America, too, must die in some ways before it can be revived in a greater, more blessed way. We are the clay, God is the Potter. Except we humble ourselves in any and every which way possible, God cannot lift us. Pride comes before destruction and we have exalted ourselves. The UNITED STATES of yesterday is no more. 2019 was it. Again, we are in a New Day, a New Era. That it was the day after Trump's regressive Mt. Rushmore speech on July 4, suggests he has assured the death of the America that was.

Warnings from God are being given abundantly nowadays: Vote for Joe Biden for President of the United States of America in 2020. He is God's man for the hour. If the crises generated by the Trump Administration had occurred slowly, say, over 5 to 8 years, we, the American people would not so instantly see how bad it is and could more easily be deceived and complacent. So, as blatantly bad as it is, it's a good thing that it happened quickly so that we can more clearly see it and more quickly fix it and move on to the blessings awaiting us in this New Day, which God says will be glorious beyond measure and beyond description: He said we will not compare it to former glory. But we need adults in leadership; God-fearing, moral, normal ones that have integrity and ability to help us recover from the crises.

The words of wise King Solomon bear repeating again: "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked bear rule, the people mourn," (Proverbs 29:2). We have been caused to suffer, mourn, despair and die, figuratively and literally, under the Trump Administration. We need refreshing, revival and restoration, and this is what the Lord has in mind. So while we sit back and watch this thing happen, let's heed His warnings and earnestly consider what's at stake right now. It is a spiritual event and we, on this base plane, are given the glorious, sacred opportunity to affect change for the better.

Books by David A. Castro

Understanding Supernatural Dreams According to the Bible
A Living Classic, $24.95

A profoundly spiritual, strictly biblical work, this expository reference book may be considered "required reading" for students of the Spirit. It takes the reader on into the spiritual realm and examines dreams therefrom. A classic in its field, it offers to help the reader understand the broad spectrum of dreams and dreaming, and may assist in healing and deliverance from sleep/dream problems. It provides many practical guidelines on trances, audible voices, out-of-body experiences, and other kinds of visions, and encourages the Body of Christ to yield to the Holy Spirit for supernatural experiences along these lines. Highly Recommended.

Chapters include: What is a Dream?; Be Renewed in the Spirit of Your Dream Life; Sleep in Heavenly Peace; Adventures in the Night Seasons; Dream Recall and Interpretation; Try the Dreams Whether they are of God; Some Experiences; Supernatural Dreams and Trances; Endtime Dreamers; Glossary; 254 pages; 8¼ x 10½"

The Prophet FromThe Projects: a memoir from the mentor
$14.95

A memoir of David's experiences in the Church World, this telling book elaborates on his conversion and education in spiritual things, supernatural experiences with the Lord, prophetic messages, and endless struggles to get his books published, which he ultimately had to do autonomously. In a frank and sober tone, he discusses what he found among many popular leaders in church circles, and gives reports of plagiarism, rejection, greed, elitism, classism, racism, and favoritism. It's all politics, and all is not kosher in the Church.

A positively refreshing series of insights from the Lord reveal the current time and what God is doing in the world today. An extraordinary plan of God is unfolding, and it includes wonderfully-anointed activity both inside and outside the Church World.

Online trading is a global phenomenon that is taking the world by storm. Making money in the Foreign Exchange (FOREX), commodities, stocks, and other Markets is quickly gaining in popularity and becoming a common pastime. People of all walks of life are beginning to enter this world of the Markets to augment their income, and some are able to quit their day jobs as a result.

Who can do this? And how? Just about anyone--housewives, students, blue-collar workers, the unemployed, even High School dropouts, as well as more educated and experienced professionals. Online access and a bank account are the first essentials, then establishing accounts with an online broker and charting platform from the comfort of your home.

The vast majority of those beginning to trade online now usually have no prior experience or specialized education. It is not, as it used to be, exclusively for those with lots of money and unique understanding and opportunity.

With focus on currencies, the readers will be shown strategies for forecasting whether any asset will go up, or down, so they win in their trades. These are some of the same techniques used by professional traders all over the world for centuries, presented in a simple, practical, user-friendly way. 56 pages; 8½ x 11½

David A. Castro is a prophet of God. He has seen Jesus, angels, and future events, mostly via supernatural dreams and trances. As the Psalmist David of old, he can truly say of the Lord, "Thou hast visited me in the night," (Psalms 17:3).

Born and raised in New York City, Brother David has a compassionate spirit, emerging from the rough and tumble Williamsburg neighborhood of Brooklyn. He was a little boy when he first heard the audible voice of Jesus. He has received a variety of supernatural dreams and visions, and has the ability to understand and articulate their dynamic functions.

David has been educated in the "school of the Holy Spirit," has a divine prophetic calling upon his life, a great devotion to God, and a naturally curious mind. He gives himself to private biblical research and prayer at the feet of Jesus.

David is an avid entertainment and education media enthusiast. He holds Master of Arts degrees in Liberal Studies (Brooklyn College, New York, 2007), and in Media Studies & Film (The New School University, New York, 2008). His first movie and directorial debut is Fanny Fly & The Aliens On High, and he has written 10 books.
